

OHIO COMING TO JAMESTOWN

The State Commissioners Select a Site and Will Make Arrangements to Build.

YACHT RACE FROM YORKTOWN

The Lila, from New York, Leads. Try to Prove Alibi in Forgery Case.

(Sp. clal to The Times-Dispatch.)

NORFOLK, VA., June 11.—The members of the Ohio Commission to the Jamestown Exposition were on the Exposition grounds to-day for the purpose of selecting a site for the Ohio building there.

Ohio's building at the Jamestown Exposition will be modeled either after Ohio's first capital at Chillicothe, or the old Worthington Mansion, on the Scioto. This was decided to-night by the Ohio commission to the exposition, after its first official visit to the exposition grounds to-day. The building will be a permanent one, so as to remain a monument to the Buckeye State in the Old Dominion. Ohio's archeology will be the chief exhibit of the State at the exposition.

A site for the State building will be selected to-morrow and the work of its erection will soon commence. The members of the commission are John W. Bookwalter, of Springfield; Ernest Root, of Medina; John P. Given, of Circleville; George W. Knight, of Columbus; and Clive C. Handy, of Wauseon.

Three yachts of the Hampton Roads Yacht Club, the Sagittae, the Lila, of the Brooklyn Yacht Club, which left Hampton Roads Saturday for a cruise to Yorktown, raced from that point back to the yacht club yesterday afternoon. The race was won by the Lila.

The start from Yorktown was made at 2 o'clock. The Lila finished at 7:45, leading the big Sagittae by fifteen minutes. The case of the United States against William Lenz, for forgery and the utterance of a obligation on the United States, occupied the attention of the United States District Court to-day. Lenz is a sergeant in the United States Army, stationed at Fort Monroe. He is alleged to have forged the name of Corporal C. B. Byron to a check for $571, drawn on the assistant treasurer of the United States. The First National Bank of Newport News cashed the check. There was an array of witnesses in the case, principally non-commissioned officers from Fort Monroe, and the examination of these witnesses consumed most of the time of the court to-morrow. The case will be concluded to-morrow.

R. M. Lett, of Newport News, attorney for the prisoner, is endeavoring to prove an alibi for him.

Rhodes, of Luray; and Mrs. James E. Riddings, of Salina, Kansas.

Mr. Rhodes was a retired farmer and merchant, and at one time was a prominent citizen of the county, holding the office of mayor for twenty-five years, in addition to being one of the first school commissioners under the free school system, and supervisor.

About fifteen minutes after his death lightning struck his barn during a heavy storm, which was burning, including a quantity of straw, hay and feed; also killing a cow, which was near the straw stack. The loss is about $400; partly insured.

BAD MARYLAND NEGRO ARRESTED AT THE CAPE

Guilty of Robbery and Suspected of Criminal Assault.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

CAPE CHARLES, VA., June 11.—William Lee, a negro, was arrested here this morning on a charge of robbery, and is believed to be the negro who assaulted Miss Powell and Mrs. Robert Barron, of near Kingston, Md., Sunday afternoon about 4 o'clock.

Lee entered the home of J. E. Townsends, at Marion, Md., about 3 o'clock, while the family was at church, securing a gold ring, watch, chain and small sum of money, and it is believed that he went from Townsends to the home of Robert Barnes and committed an assault.

One ring and chain was found on him here. He will be taken to Princess Anne, Md., jail to-morrow morning.

There is much talk of lynching if he is found to be the one that committed both deeds.

A Council ordinance appointing city sanitary inspectors was referred back to the Finance Committee for verbal correction, and a resolution was passed requesting that committee to report on the ordinance appointing a board to examine plumbers.

The Aldermen also concurred with the Council's action in confirming a one-year renewal contract with the Virginia Passenger and Power Company for city lights and in requiring enforcement of the ordinance providing that policemen act as sanitary inspectors during the summer.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

LYNCHBURG, VA., June 11.—The negroes of Lynchburg are preparing to boycott the street cars when the new State law, which provides for the separation of the races in the street cars, becomes effective here on Thursday. An appeal has been issued to the colored population through a circular, asking them to refrain from using the cars. The boycott was announced in the pulpit of the negro churches, most of the leaders of the race declaring they will not patronize the cars except in case of necessity.

One of the pastors predicted that the operation of the law would be the cause of more trouble in Lynchburg than any other that has been enacted in the State.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) LYNCHBURG, VA., June 11.—Mrs. Geo. M. Jones, who has given an endowed public library here, now rapidly nearing completion, to the memory of her husband, has just authorized the erection at her expense of a new library building at the Randolph-Macon Woman's College, an important college in the city.

The building will be a memorial to her two daughters, and it will cost about $30,000. It will be a reproduction of the Science Hall that is being erected from the recent gift by Andrew Carnegie.

This building completes the general architectural plan for the college that was adopted before the first brick was laid, and it gives the college one of the best-equipped school properties in the country. The capacity next session will be 40 young ladies, or 100 more than during the session just ended.

Dr. W. G. Starr, pastor of the Cumberland Street Methodist Church, that they do not want to die just yet.

Being naturally interested in suicide, they went to hear the sermon on the subject before ending it all, doctor and to-day, called on the doctor and told him that their determination to take their lives had been forever put to sleep. The man and woman have no relation to each other, and Dr. Starr would not divulge their names.

DOCTOR CURED OF ECZEMA

Maryland Physician Cures Himself of Eczema with Cuticura Remedies. Prescribes Them and Has Cured Many Cases Where Other Formulas Have Failed—Dr. Fisher Says:

"My face was afflicted with eczema in the year 1897. I used the Cuticura Remedies, and was entirely cured. I am a practicing physician and very often prescribe Cuticura Resolvent and Cuticura Soap in cases of eczema, and they have cured where other formulas have failed. I am not in the habit of endorsing patent medicines, but when I find remedies possessing true merit, such as the Cuticura Remedies do, I am broad-minded enough to proclaim their virtues to the world. I have been practicing medicine for sixteen years, and must say I find your Remedies A. No. 1. You are at liberty to publish this letter, or any part of it. I remain, very truly yours, C. M. Fisher, M. D., Big Foot, Md., May 24, 1906."

Tuesday will be taken up in the trial of Richard Stevens, who has been indicted for malicious shooting.

The Democratic Committee met and appointed officers for the coming primary election. The people are not manifesting much interest in it, and a small vote will be polled on that account and by reason of a number of them, not having paid their taxes in time. W. A.
